

John Marshall

Employed by AVX Ltd, United Kingdom

BSc Queens University, PgDip University of Ulster, MSc University of Ulster, CEng. M.I.E.T

Past Activities:

Employed by AVX Ltd since April 1983 and based in the Coleraine manufacturing facility in N.Ireland. Has had various responsibilities in the Process Engineering, Production and Quality areas and several years as Manufacturing and Operations manager.

Has spent two periods of secondment in the Asia region firstly in 2002 - 2004 providing technical support to the Ceramic Manufacturing operations in Malaysia and China and developing the AVX customer base with particular emphasis on Power supply , Telecommunications and the Automotive industries.

During the second period 2009 -2010 responsible for Distribution, Logistics, Planning and MIS responsibility for all AVX Asia regional groups .

Present Activities:

Technical liaison on the Space PME Product Materials , Product engineering and Development .

Technical support for the AVX Space and Aerospace BME ceramic capacitor development programs through Materials, Process Engineering, Screening techniques and Reliability programs.

Customer technical liaison and design In for projects utilising BME capacitor products within the U.S.A and Asia regions and with particular emphasis on the Space and Aerospace Ceramic Capacitor market and the Automotive Ceramic Capacitor customer base.